Student Agreement:

I certify that my electronic submission is the version of my thesis or dissertation that was approved by my committee, and that I have obtained all necessary permission in writing for copyrighted material to be published in my thesis or dissertation. Further, I certify that I have obtained and attached hereto a written permission statement from the owner(s) of any copyrighted matter to be included in my thesis or dissertation allowing distribution as specified below. Copies of all such permissions are maintained in my files.

I hereby grant to Appalachian State University and its agents the nonexclusive license to archive and make accessible, under the conditions specified below, my thesis or dissertation in whole or in part in all forms of media, now or hereafter known. This is a license rather than an assignment, and I, therefore, retain all rights to the thesis or dissertation, including the right to use all or part of this thesis or dissertation in future works, such as articles or books.

I hereby represent and warrant that I have full authority to enter into this Agreement and to grant the University the rights granted hereunder free and clear of any and all rights of any third parties and I hereby agree that I shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the State of North Carolina; the Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina; Appalachian State University; all current and former trustees, officers, agents, and employees of the above-named entities (in both their official and individual capacities); and all successors of the above-named entities of and from all claims, causes of action and related expenses (including attorneys' fees), any judgments rendered against the University, and settlements agreed to by the University in writing, relating to fraud, negligence, breach of warranty, defamation or infringement of intellectual property rights by or on the part of Student on or after the effective date of this Agreement. I hereby warrant that the thesis or dissertation does not, and the University's use of the thesis or dissertation will not, in any way violate any law or conflict with any prior or remaining obligations I may have to any other party.

I agree that the above referenced thesis or dissertation, and copies thereof, may be placed in any database or digital library owned or operated by Appalachian State University or the University of North Carolina System with the following status:

Please check the following, if applicable:

- Appalachian State University is authorized to release the entire work immediately for access worldwide.
- My thesis or dissertation is based on data generated through research that will support other publications from people on the research team (such as my advisor); OR I am planning to publish all or part of my thesis or dissertation and know that publishers in my field may consider open access electronic thesis/dissertations to be a prior publication.
- My thesis or dissertation contains intellectual property that has been disclosed according to Appalachian State University Intellectual Property Policy for patent and/or proprietary purposes.

Embargo Request:

- I request that Appalachian State University embargo (block) access to the electronic full text of my thesis or dissertation for the following period: _____ from the date my manuscript is approved by the Graduate School or Honors College, after which I authorize the release of the entire work immediately for world-wide access.*

Important note:* It is the student's responsibility to renew an embargo by contacting the University Libraries should more time be necessary.

Student and University acknowledge and agree that this document may be executed by electronic signature, which shall be considered as an original signature for all purposes and shall have the same force and effect as an original signature. Without limitation, “electronic signature” shall include faxed versions of an original signature or electronically scanned and transmitted versions (e.g., via pdf) of an original signature.

The undersigned agrees to abide by the statements above, and agrees that this approval form updates any and all previous approval forms submitted heretofore.
