

Application to join the Honors College Vanguard September 2017

Members of the Honors Vanguard make a commitment to leadership within the Honors College by:

- meeting with prospective students and their parents
- representing the Honors College at public events
- helping host Honors College social and service events
- serving as advisors to the Dean on the Honors "kitchen cabinet"

Benefits include extraordinary experiences in leadership and communication, chances to help fellow and future fellow students, and opportunities to work together to make us a world-class Honors College.

Make great changes happen!

We invite all Honors College students currently in their second to sixth semesters of study at Appalachian to apply to join the Honors Vanguard.

Please type your answers to the following questions and prompts in ARIAL 14 point. Yours application is due on Friday, October 6, by 11:59 p.m.!

Name:

ASU Email:

Hometown and State:

1st semester at ASU:

Expected graduation term:

Major(s):

Minor(s):

Other (certificate?):

List of Honors courses completed or in progress:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.

Please answer these 4 questions in 100 words or less:

1. If you could change one important thing about the Honors College, what would you change, and why?

2. If you had to pick one thing about the Honors College experience to share with a prospective student, what would it be, and why?

3. Why would you like to join the Honors Vanguard?

4. What other qualifications, talents, and experiences, in Honors and out, will help to make you an outstanding ambassador for the Honors College and for App State? Consider things like: diversity and / or experience with diverse populations; experience with low-income, first-generation, or rural students; high-impact educational experiences such as research or creative activity, study-abroad, important internships, teaching, civic engagement, service-learning, etc.