BOONE, NORTH CAROLINA 28608

Memorandum of Agreement between
Louisburg College, Louisburg, NC
and
Appalachian State University, Boone, NC

1. Authority Louisburg College (LC) is authorized by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools: Commission on Colleges to confer associate degrees. Appalachian State University (ASU) is authorized by the University of North Carolina's Board of Governors to confer bachelor degrees.

2. Purpose The purpose of the articulation agreement between LC and ASU is to facilitate the continuation of honors work by graduates of LC in ASU's Honors College. The LC Honors Program requires students to earn a grade of B or better in all courses designated for honors credit and to maintain a GPA of at least 3.3 for all curriculum classes. LC graduates may receive up to 12 hours of honors credit toward the completion of the requirements of the ASU Honors College. The ASU Honors College Director retains the right to award additional hours of honors credit at his or her discretion.

In order to participate in this agreement, graduates of LC must apply for acceptance to ASU and to the Honors College. Upon acceptance, the student will schedule a meeting with the ASU Honors College Director to determine how LC honors credits will apply to the requirements of the ASU Honors College. Nothing about this agreement will supersede the existing policies, procedures, or practices of either institution.

3. Financial Information This articulation agreement does not directly involve any transfer of funds or other explicit financial obligations for either institution.

4. Period of Performance The current agreement will begin in the fall of 2014 and will continue indefinitely.

5. Modification or Termination This agreement may be modified or terminated by either party through written communication provided with at least one year advance notice.
